THE CARDINAL PRINCIPLES

The university follows a set of guiding principles that shape our community and our actions. Every member of the University of Louisville family is expected to follow these Cardinal Principles:

C A R D I N A L

Let us be a university that is a Community of Care. Care for self, care for one another as the Cardinal Family and care for the community beyond. We are a community – not just a collection of individuals. We are a community – not just buildings connected by an HVAC system.

Accountability. We keep our promises. We own mistakes. We are accountable to the team.

Respect, Irrespective of Position. We respect each other's humanity and dignity, no matter what our positions in the organization are. We also respect our right to differing and conflicting positions on issues. We will be a place that prepares students for ideas, not protects students from ideas.

Diversity and Inclusion. We celebrate diversity of thought, perspectives and life experiences. As our state motto declares: United We Stand, Divided We Fall. We want everyone, in the richness of all of their many unique and intersecting identities, to feel included in the Cardinal fold.

Integrity and Transparency. We will be true to our mission of an urban research university to create, disseminate and apply knowledge. Integrity is our collective commitment to make decisions with the best interests of our university in mind and to share the decision-making rationale and outcomes.

Noble Purpose. Each of us will identify for ourselves the way in which we make a difference. We must solve the problems of access and affordability to give everyone the opportunity to find and pursue their own noble purpose.

Agility. We will recognize that things change and when they do, we must change things. We know when adaptation in an organization does not keep pace with adaptation in the environment, the organization will not survive.

Leadership. We recognize management is a position but leadership is an activity. We will all behave as owners of the University of Louisville because we are. "We are UofL" is not just a hashtag or a slogan. It is our declaration of leadership and ownership.

Aldo Perez & Amber Ruley

ELIZABETHTOWN COMMUNITY AND TECHNICAL COLLEGE GRADUATES

Aldo and Amber, an engaged couple, said they wanted to complete their education for their families and their children. They even graduated at the same time. He earned two degrees – industrial maintenance and electrical technology. She completed her degree in medical information technology.

Both are now employed in their community. She works for a chiropractic office and he is a supervisor at Alutrim.

"College is for anybody who wants to do it, and put the effort toward it," Aldo said.

Amber credits her education at ECTC for helping her family have a better life.

"It gives you a better future with your kids," she said. "It gives you something to look forward to."

GED+PLUS

ACCELERATE YOUR PATH TO A CAREER

Students can earn a GED® plus a college credential

KCTCS and KY Skills U (formerly adult education) worked together to create an innovative GED® program where students can co-enroll in both Skills U and short-term KCTCS classes to earn a GED® plus a college certificate tuition-free.

Students receive one-on-one attention and could get in and out in four months. More information is available at GEDPlusKy.org.

POINTS OF PRIDE

KCTCS is the largest provider of postsecondary education, online and dual credit classes and workforce training in Kentucky. We offer programs that are necessary to meet the workforce demands of today and into the future.

Our colleges collaborate with businesses around the state and align their programs with business needs, so our students have the skills needed for jobs in their communities. As those needs change, so does our curriculum.

Students' coursework transfers to all Kentucky universities and many outside the state.

We have the lowest tuition of any higher education institution in Kentucky. Students pay less than half what they'd pay at our four-year partners.

Since 1999, our enrollment has increased 111 percent.

Since our creation, the number of credentials we've awarded has increased nearly 300%. In fact, we are 8th in the nation in credentials awarded by public, two-year colleges; 2nd based on state population.

For people who want to earn a certificate and go directly work, we offer many short-term programs. Some can be completed in four months or less and can lead to jobs that pay up to $60,000.

More than three million participants have received workforce training through our Workforce Solutions division since it was created.

Because of grants and scholarships, some KCTCS students have no out-of-pocket expense. Only 18% of KCTCS students take out student loans. Those who do, borrow less than $5,000.

Since our creation, KCTCS has served 1 million Kentuckians.

POWER OF A UNIFIED SYSTEM

The 16 colleges of the Kentucky Community and Technical College System (KCTCS) are united in their commitment to making life better for our students, communities and the citizens of Kentucky.

A unified system creates value for taxpayers. For instance, for every $1 taxpayers invest in KCTCS the return on investment is $3.60, according to a study by Emsi.

Without a system, KCTCS colleges would need an additional $50 million and more than 800 additional staff to provide the same level of service to students and communities.

Cost savings and efficiencies include payroll, technology, human resources, legal counsel and many other services. Without a system, some colleges could not afford these services on their own.

JAMIE LINDSEY
SOUTHCENTRAL KENTUCKY COMMUNITY AND TECHNICAL COLLEGE GRADUATE

When she graduated from high school, Jamie Lindsey took a job at Delta Faucet in Morgantown. She liked the company and the job, so she decided not to go to college.

Several years later, she changed her mind about college. In 2017, Lindsey enrolled in the SKY FAME program in which students attend classes two days a week and work at a sponsoring company three days a week. She calls the decision life changing.

"They definitely set you up for success," Jamie said. "My only regret is that I didn't do it sooner."

ENGAGED IN THE LIFE OF OUR COMMUNITIES

"Our middle name is community."

During the COVID-19 pandemic all 16 colleges donated personal protection equipment to local hospitals. Some used 3-D printing to make face shields.

Colleges also opened food pantries and set up wi-fi hotspots in their parking lots to help students who had no access to broadband.
