

GOVERNOR'S SCHOLARS PROGRAM

Discussion

The Governor's Scholars Program is a five-week, residential summer program for outstanding Kentucky students completing their junior year in high school. It balances a strong liberal arts program with a full co-curricular and residential life experience. Students must be nominated by their school districts or private schools to be considered for admission. The first Governor's Scholars summer program was held in 1983 with 245 scholars. In 2001, almost 1,000 Kentucky students participated on the program's three campuses.

A panel of high school students who recently participated in the Kentucky Governor's Scholars Program will offer their perspectives on their experiences in high school and their perceptions of postsecondary education.
